

Administrator

The Administrator plays a crucial role in ensuring the smooth and effective operation of all aspects of the academy's administrative functions within a vibrant learning environment for young children. This position is central to proactively supporting the development of a dynamic learning community by delivering efficient and accurate administrative services that meet the diverse needs of every stakeholder, including pupils, parents, and staff. You will be instrumental in maintaining organised systems, facilitating seamless communication, and contributing to the overall positive ethos and aims of the academy.

Core Purpose

The core purpose of the Administrator is to provide high-quality, diverse administrative support across the academy, ensuring that all correspondence, reports, and documentation are well-presented, accurate, and produced efficiently. This role is essential in supporting various academy processes, from admissions and pupil records to health and safety, and in maintaining vital student records. By demonstrating meticulous attention to detail and a proactive approach, the Administrator contributes significantly to the seamless daily functioning of the academy and the positive experience of students, parents, and staff.

Key Areas of Responsibility

1. Administrative Operations

- Undertake a diverse range of administrative duties within the Academy, ensuring all correspondence, reports, and other documentation are well-presented and accurate, as directed by the Office Manager.
- Act as a lead administrator on the Academy's ParentPay system, ensuring the accurate inputting of data to the highest levels of precision.
- Prepare agendas and meticulously type minutes of meetings for senior staff, ensuring clarity and accuracy.
- Assist the Office Manager with the comprehensive administration of events associated with the Academy, such as school performances, sports days, or parent-teacher evenings, ensuring smooth execution.
- Provide support with all aspects of the Admissions process as directed by the Office Manager, contributing to a welcoming experience for new families and pupils joining our community.
- Assist with other administrative processes, including those related to Exclusions and Policy watch, ensuring compliance and timely updates relevant to a primary setting.
- Be prepared to take minutes for Academy briefing meetings, capturing essential information accurately.

- Actively encourage, supervise, and where appropriate, initiate engaging play activities, creative pursuits, and quiet time options that stimulate 3. Promoting Health, Hygiene, and Nutrition
- Assist with providing cover for administrative staff absence within the Academy where appropriate, demonstrating flexibility and teamwork.
- Provide cover on reception in case of emergencies, ensuring a continuous point of contact for visitors, parents, and callers.
- Share responsibilities for maintaining Student Data Checking sheets, ensuring records are current and accurate for all pupils.
- Share responsibility for updating Student Health Care Plans, ensuring vital information regarding the well-being of our younger pupils is accessible and up-to-date.
- Share responsibility for dealing with unwell students, which includes making phone calls to parents/carers and managing students on medication, ensuring appropriate paperwork is checked and child's comfort is prioritised.
- Undertake general filing, copying, and shredding as required, maintaining organised and confidential records for all academy operations.

2. Professional Development and Values

- Take responsibility for personal professional development, continuously seeking opportunities to enhance skills and knowledge relevant to administrative best practices in an educational environment.
- Participate, as appropriate, in the Academy's professional development programme, engaging in learning opportunities that support the wider school community.
- Engage actively in the Performance Management Review process, evaluating personal performance through self-evaluation and learning from the effective practice of others and from evidence.
- Provide a positive role model through personal and professional conduct, upholding the academy's values and ethos, which prioritise the well-being and development of young children.
- Work collaboratively as a member of designated teams, contributing positively to effective working relations within the Academy's supportive staff environment.
- Be proficient in the application of literacy, numeracy, and ICT skills, utilising a range of software packages and equipment effectively to support daily operations.
- Safeguard the health and safety of all students both on the Academy premises and when engaged in authorised school activities elsewhere, with particular attention to the needs of primary-aged children.
- Contribute to the effective running of the Academy and actively promote learning in a positive environment for all pupils.

Person Specification – Administrator

This section outlines the essential and desirable attributes for the Administrator role in a Primary School:

Qualifications and Training

Essential:

- Educated to GCSE level standard or equivalent (English and Maths A*–C grade or equivalent).

Desirable:

- Recognised qualification in business administration, office skills, or a related field, providing a structured approach to administrative duties.
- Training in specific administrative software or systems commonly used in schools (e.g., ParentPay, MIS systems).

Experience

Essential:

- Experience of undertaking a diverse range of administrative duties in a busy office environment.
- Experience of maintaining accurate records and producing well-presented documentation, critical for school reports and communications.
- Experience of using a range of ICT packages for administrative tasks, demonstrating practical application of digital skills.

Desirable:

- Experience of working in an educational setting or similar public-facing environment with direct interaction with children and families.
- Experience as a lead administrator on a specific system (e.g., ParentPay), demonstrating system expertise.
- Experience in preparing agendas and taking minutes of meetings, showcasing organisational and accurate recording skills.
- Experience of providing reception cover or dealing with public enquiries, particularly from parents or external visitors.
- Experience in managing student data or health records, highlighting an understanding of the sensitive nature of this information.
- Experience supporting school events or parent engagement activities.

Knowledge and Understanding

Essential:

- Strong verbal and written communication skills, appropriate for effective interaction with colleagues, students, parents/carers, and other professionals.
- Ability to work constructively as part of a team, demonstrating an understanding of school roles and responsibilities, including one's own.

- Good standard of numeracy, literacy, and data skills, with the ability to absorb and understand a wide range of information, often related to pupil records or school finances.
- Ability to use a range of ICT packages and equipment effectively, demonstrating proficiency in common office software (e.g., Microsoft Office Suite).
- Awareness of safeguarding principles and procedures within an educational context, with specific understanding of child protection for young children.
- Understanding of the paramount importance of confidentiality and data protection in handling sensitive information, especially pupil data.

Desirable:

- Knowledge of primary school administrative processes, such as early years admissions, pupil attendance tracking, and policy management relevant to a younger age group.
- Familiarity with health and safety regulations relevant to an office environment and general school premises.
- Understanding of basic financial procedures in an administrative context, such as processing invoices or managing petty cash.
- Knowledge of communication strategies for engaging effectively with parents of young children.

Skills and Abilities

Essential:

- Ability to build and form good relationships with students, parents/carers, and colleagues, fostering a positive and collaborative atmosphere across the academy.
- Strong verbal and written communication skills, enabling clear and effective interaction with diverse audiences, including adapting communication for parents of young children.
- Good standard of numeracy, literacy, and data skills, with the ability to absorb and understand a wide range of information, such as pupil performance data or budgetary details.
- Ability to use a range of ICT packages and equipment effectively, demonstrating proficiency in common office software, school management systems, and communication tools.
- A methodical and accurate approach to work, ensuring precision in all tasks, from data entry to drafting correspondence.
- Aptitude and desire to work collaboratively and flexibly, supporting others within a team, and assisting different departments as needed.
- The ability to work effectively without supervision where appropriate, demonstrating initiative and reliability in managing daily tasks.
- The ability to work flexibly, prioritise tasks, multi-task efficiently, and perform well under pressure, especially during busy school periods.
- Excellent literacy and numeracy skills, essential for producing high-quality letters, reports, presentations, and documents for a variety of audiences.
- The ability to generate statistical information from monitoring and evaluation systems/procedures, contributing to school improvement.
- The ability to communicate effectively with professionals, parents, and staff, adapting communication style as needed to ensure clarity and empathy.

Desirable:

- Proven ability to take initiative and adopt a creative approach to problem-solving within administrative challenges.
- Demonstrated ability to deliver to given timelines and targets consistently, ensuring smooth operational flow.
- Strong analytical skills for understanding and interpreting data, contributing to informed decision-making.
- Ability to train or guide others on administrative processes, sharing best practices and supporting colleagues.

Personal Qualities

The Administrator will be a highly organised and meticulous individual, possessing a calm and diplomatic approach to all tasks and interactions. They will demonstrate exceptional discretion and integrity when handling confidential information, fostering trust across the academy community. This role calls for a proactive and adaptable professional who thrives on efficiency and takes genuine pride in their work, consistently seeking to enhance and develop their skills. They will be a reliable and resilient team player, committed to the highest standards of child protection and safeguarding, and will embody a strong sense of personal responsibility for health and safety. Their unwavering commitment to the academy's ethos and its entire community will be evident in their dedicated and positive contributions, creating a welcoming and efficient hub for all.

Safeguarding of Students and Duty of Care

All staff, regardless of role, level of seniority and location, have a responsibility to ensure the highest levels of safeguarding and promoting the welfare of our pupils, and we expect all our staff and volunteers to share this commitment. We must collectively create an environment where children feel safe to learn, play, and grow. Children should feel comfortable in their surroundings and know that they can approach any responsible adult with any problems or concerns.

All staff must be able to identify any children who are at risk of harm, and know the characteristics of abuse or neglect. If you suspect or confirm harm then it's essential you know what actions to take.

Annual safeguarding training is offered to all staff at Leigh Academies Trust, and it is the staff member's responsibility to be aware of the most up to date guidance documented in the Keeping Children Safe in Education document (Department of Education).

Notes

The job description allocates duties and responsibilities but does not direct the particular amount of time to be spent on carrying them out and no part of it may be so construed. This job description is not necessarily a comprehensive definition of the post. It will be reviewed at least once a year and may be subject to modification or amendment at any time after consultation with the holder of the post.

The duties may be varied to meet the changing demands of the academy/business unit at the reasonable discretion of the Principal/Director. This job description does not form part of the contract of employment. It describes the way the post-holder is expected and required to perform and complete the particular duties as set out in the foregoing.

