

After School Club Supervisor

At Leigh Academies Trust, the After School Club Supervisor plays a pivotal role in extending the nurturing and enriching environment of the school day into the after-school hours. This position is fundamental to fostering a positive, safe, and stimulating atmosphere where children can unwind, engage in diverse activities, and enjoy healthy snacks before being collected by their families. Our Supervisors are key in ensuring the well-being, positive engagement, and smooth transition of every child under their care, providing a secure and enjoyable end to their school day.

Core Purpose

The core purpose of the After School Club Supervisor is to provide exceptional care and supervision for children during the crucial post-school hours. This involves ensuring a safe, supportive, and engaging atmosphere where pupils feel comfortable, happy, and able to participate in a variety of recreational and developmental activities. Supervisors facilitate the provision of healthy snacks, encourage positive social interactions, and oversee a range of stimulating activities, all while maintaining a calm and orderly environment. By doing so, they contribute significantly to the overall pastoral care and holistic development of our pupils, embodying the academy's commitment to a nurturing and inclusive extended school day.

Key Areas of Responsibility

1. Supervising and Caring for Children

- Provide comprehensive care for all children attending the After School Club, ensuring their safety and well-being in all designated areas, both indoors and outdoors.
- Supervise the safe escorting of children from their classrooms or designated collection points to the After School Club, ensuring their well-being at all times.
- Ensure the safe transfer of children to their parents or authorised carers at the end of each session, maintaining clear communication and verifying collection arrangements.

2. Facilitating Activities and Engagement

- Support other team members in the planning of daily activities to ensure children's needs are met, offering a diverse range of engaging options that support physical, emotional, social, and intellectual development.
- Ensure children have access to appropriate activities, giving consideration to families' ethnic, cultural, and linguistic backgrounds to ensure the academy's Equal Opportunities policy is adhered to.

- Actively encourage, supervise, and where appropriate, initiate engaging play activities, creative pursuits, and quiet time options that stimulate 3. Promoting Health, Hygiene, and Nutrition

3. Promoting Health, Hygiene, and Nutrition

- Work with other staff to provide healthy meals/snacks, promoting healthy eating habits and catering to diverse dietary needs where possible.
- Maintain the highest standards of cleanliness and hygiene before, during, and at the end of each session within the club premises, ensuring the well-being of the children and staff.
- Support with ordering all grocery items for the After School Club each week, ensuring adequate supplies for snacks and activities.

4. Communication and Collaboration

- Advise the Lead Supervisor of any concerns regarding children, parents, or the safety of equipment, preserving confidentiality as necessary to ensure the well-being of the children.
- Support staff in ensuring that high standards are maintained in the running of the club, including how the resources (staff, premises, and equipment) are used to meet the needs of the children.
- Support the supervisor in ensuring that all records are maintained, ensuring confidentiality of information, including attendance registers, incident logs, and communication with parents.
- Work in partnership with the academy and liaise with external agencies and professionals as required to ensure high standards are maintained for the club's operation.

5. Adherence to Policies and Procedures

- Work diligently within KCC Guidelines for Child Protection and the academy's safeguarding policy to ensure the well-being of all children.
- Maintain confidentiality at all times regarding children, families, and academy operations.
- Become aware of relevant and new legislation, procedures, and policies to ensure that the club is operating within the agreed procedures and support the Principal in ensuring the National Standards and out-of-academy play values are met at all times.
- Execute the duties and responsibilities of the post in accordance with the school's Health and Safety Policy and relevant Health and Safety Guidance and Legislation.

6. Professional Development and Wider Responsibilities

- The post holder will be expected to attend staff meetings and training sessions as required to ensure their own personal and professional development, particularly in areas relevant to after-school care and child supervision.
- Take responsibility for personal professional development, seeking opportunities to enhance skills in child engagement and club management.
- Engage actively in any relevant performance review processes, reflecting on practice and identifying areas for growth within the role.

Person Specification – After School Club Supervisor

This section outlines the essential and desirable attributes for the After School Club Supervisor role:

Qualifications and Training

Essential:

- Basic literacy and numeracy skills, sufficient to understand instructions, record incidents, and communicate effectively.

Desirable:

- A relevant qualification in childcare, early years education, or a related field (e.g., Level 2 or 3 in Supporting Teaching and Learning).
- First Aid certification (Paediatric First Aid highly desirable).

Experience

Essential:

- Experience working with children in a supervisory or care capacity (e.g., school setting, nursery, youth club, holiday club, or similar).
- Demonstrated ability to manage groups of children effectively and maintain an orderly, yet fun, environment.
- Experience in providing engaging activities for children.

Desirable:

- Experience in a school after-school club or similar extended school provision.
- Experience assisting with food preparation or serving in a group setting.
- Experience in dealing with minor incidents or conflicts among children, showing patience and fairness.
- Experience in a role requiring responsibility and reliability, particularly in managing a structured routine.

Knowledge and Understanding

Essential:

- A fundamental understanding of child development and the needs of children across a range of ages (e.g., 4–11 years), particularly in a less formal, recreational setting.
- Basic knowledge of safeguarding and child protection procedures, and the importance of reporting concerns.
- Awareness of health and safety procedures applicable to wrap-around care, including playground safety and indoor activity safety.
- Understanding of effective strategies for promoting positive behaviour and resolving minor conflicts among children.

Desirable:

- Familiarity with the principles of playwork and child-led activities.
- Knowledge of age-appropriate games, crafts, and activities suitable for an after-school club.
- An understanding of nutritional guidelines for children's snacks.
- Knowledge of cultural diversity and how to ensure activities are inclusive for all backgrounds.

Skills and Abilities

Essential:

- Good communication skills, enabling clear, calm, and effective interaction with students, parents, and staff.
- Ability to supervise groups of children effectively, maintaining vigilance and control, especially during active playtimes.
- Ability to work constructively and collaboratively as part of a team, communicating effectively with colleagues.
- Strong observational skills to identify student needs, potential issues, or children who may be withdrawn or upset.
- Capacity to follow instructions and implement academy policies consistently and fairly.
- Patience and empathy when dealing with young children, understanding their emotional responses and varying needs.

Desirable:

- Ability to administer basic first aid calmly and competently, particularly for common childhood injuries.
- Ability to de-escalate minor conflicts or disagreements between children using age-appropriate methods.
- Proactive approach to identifying and addressing potential issues before they escalate, especially during free play.
- Ability to initiate and participate in simple games or activities with children.
- Good organisational skills for managing equipment or resources during lunchtime.

Personal Qualities

The Lunchtime Supervisor will be a highly responsible and reliable individual, possessing a calm and approachable demeanour that fosters trust and respect among students. They will demonstrate excellent communication skills, enabling clear and consistent interaction, and will be adept at promoting positive social behaviours and harmonious play among young children. This role calls for an individual who is both vigilant and empathetic, capable of maintaining order while also offering support, comfort, and guidance to younger pupils. They will be a dedicated team player, committed to creating a safe, positive, and enjoyable lunchtime experience for every student, consistently upholding the academy's values and expectations. A genuine enjoyment of working with young children and their boundless energy is key.

Safeguarding of Students and Duty of Care

All staff, regardless of role, level of seniority and location, have a responsibility to ensure the highest levels of safeguarding and promoting the welfare of our pupils, and we expect all our staff and volunteers to share this commitment. We must collectively create an environment where children feel safe to learn, play, and grow. Children should feel comfortable in their surroundings and know that they can approach any responsible adult with any problems or concerns.

All staff must be able to identify any children who are at risk of harm, and know the characteristics of abuse or neglect. If you suspect or confirm harm then it's essential you know what actions to take.

Annual safeguarding training is offered to all staff at Leigh Academies Trust, and it is the staff member's responsibility to be aware of the most up to date guidance documented in the Keeping Children Safe in Education document (Department of Education).

Notes

The job description allocates duties and responsibilities but does not direct the particular amount of time to be spent on carrying them out and no part of it may be so construed. This job description is not necessarily a comprehensive definition of the post. It will be reviewed at least once a year and may be subject to modification or amendment at any time after consultation with the holder of the post.

The duties may be varied to meet the changing demands of the academy/business unit at the reasonable discretion of the Principal/Director. This job description does not form part of the contract of employment. It describes the way the post-holder is expected and required to perform and complete the particular duties as set out in the foregoing.