

Inclusion Officer

The role of an Inclusion Officer is fundamental to cultivating an educational environment where every student feels valued, safe, and empowered to learn, regardless of their individual challenges. This pivotal position is dedicated to managing and promoting inclusive practices, ensuring that all students, especially those requiring additional support, can effectively access their education and thrive academically and personally. You will be instrumental in maintaining high standards of behaviour and work, ensuring that every student has the opportunity to succeed and reach their full potential.

Core Purpose

The core purpose of the Inclusion Officer is to champion an inclusive educational environment, providing targeted support to students who require intervention to manage their behaviour and engage fully with the curriculum. You will be responsible for the day-to-day supervision of students in the Internal Exclusion Room (IER), ensuring a structured and purposeful learning space. Beyond this, you will work proactively with students, families, and external agencies to develop and implement strategies that remove barriers to learning, promote positive behaviour, and facilitate successful reintegration into the wider academy community. Your dedication will directly contribute to the holistic development and academic achievement of our students.

Key Areas of Responsibility

1. Student Support and Behaviour Management

- Supervise students referred to the Internal Exclusion Room (IER), maintaining consistently high standards of behaviour and ensuring productive engagement with set work.
- Develop and implement inclusive practices in collaboration with identified students and their parents/carers, enabling students to effectively access their education.
- Collect students for the IER and support the College Leadership Team in undertaking Internal Pastoral Support Plans upon students' return from the IER.
- Develop effective conflict resolution strategies and apply them to de-escalate challenging situations.
- Act as the first responder to the On Call process when there are no students in the IER, providing immediate support where needed.

2. Collaboration and Communication

- Communicate efficiently with staff, ensuring they are aware of students in the IER and that appropriate work is set and provided.

- Collate and maintain a comprehensive bank of suitable subject materials for use within the IER.
- Communicate effectively with parents/carers regarding their child's attendance and progress in the IER.
- Support designated members of the Academy and outside agencies with issues related to student inclusion, including the completion and submission of Early Help applications.
- Support parents/carers of identified students in accessing other relevant agencies and services via the Academy's Student Support Services.
- Maintain confidential and comprehensive records of all work undertaken, ensuring accuracy and compliance with data protection.
- Attend relevant internal meetings (e.g., attendance, behaviour, inclusion teams) and external meetings as applicable.
- Provide administrative support to Student Support Managers where appropriate.

3. Professional Development and Values

- Take personal responsibility for continuous professional development, staying abreast of best practices in inclusion and behaviour management.
- Actively participate in the Academy's professional development programme as appropriate, contributing to a culture of continuous learning.
- Engage actively in the Performance Management Review process, reflecting on personal performance through self-evaluation and learning from effective practice and evidence.
- Serve as a positive role model through exemplary personal and professional conduct.
- Work collaboratively as a member of designated teams, contributing positively to effective working relations within the Academy.
- Demonstrate proficiency in literacy, numeracy, and ICT, utilising these skills to enhance support for students and administrative tasks.
- Contribute to the effective running of the Academy and promote learning in a positive environment.

Person Specification – Family Liaison Officer

This section outlines the essential and desirable attributes for the Inclusion Officer role:

Qualifications and Training

Essential:

- Educated to GCSE level standard or equivalent (English and Maths A*–C grade or equivalent).
- Understanding of safeguarding procedures and the ability to respond appropriately to concerns.
- Knowledge of relevant legislation and guidance related to inclusion, safeguarding, and child protection.

Desirable:

- Additional qualifications in behaviour management, special educational needs, or a related field.
- Training in de-escalation techniques or restorative justice practices.
- Knowledge of the roles of external agencies and support services relevant to student welfare.

Experience

Essential:

- Experience of working with children or young people, particularly in a support capacity.
- Experience of communicating effectively with students, parents/carers, and staff.
- Experience of record-keeping and report writing.

Desirable:

- Experience of working in a school environment, particularly in a pastoral or support role.
- Experience of working with students with Special Educational Needs (SEN) or challenging behaviour.
- Experience of conflict resolution and de-escalation techniques.
- Experience in developing and implementing individual support plans for students.
- Experience of multi-agency working.

Knowledge and Understanding

Essential:

- Understanding of factors affecting student behaviour and common barriers to learning.
- Knowledge of strategies for supporting students with behavioural, emotional, and social difficulties.

Desirable:

- In-depth knowledge of specific behavioural interventions and their application.
- Understanding of the impact of adverse childhood experiences on student behaviour and learning.
- Familiarity with the National Curriculum and assessment frameworks.

Skills and Abilities

Essential:

- Strong communication and interpersonal skills, with the ability to build rapport and establish positive relationships with students, parents, and colleagues.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team, demonstrating initiative and a collaborative spirit.
- Ability to maintain confidentiality and handle sensitive information appropriately and with discretion.
- Good ICT skills, proficient in using relevant software for communication, record-keeping, and resource creation.
- Ability to work sensitively and empathetically with students and families facing complex challenges.
- A proactive and solution-focused approach to problem-solving.
- Resilience and the ability to manage challenging situations calmly and effectively.
- Strong organisational skills, with the ability to manage a varied workload and prioritise tasks efficiently.

Desirable:

- Proven ability to de-escalate difficult situations and promote positive outcomes.
- Ability to analyse data related to behaviour and attendance to inform interventions.
- Strong presentation skills for delivering information to individuals or small groups.

Personal Qualities

The Inclusion Officer will be a highly dedicated and compassionate individual with a profound commitment to fostering an inclusive and supportive environment for all students. They will possess exceptional interpersonal skills, enabling them to build trust and rapport with students, families, and colleagues. This role requires a resilient and patient individual who can approach challenging situations with a calm and positive demeanour, always seeking constructive solutions. The Inclusion Officer will be proactive, organised, and adaptable, demonstrating a genuine desire to make a tangible difference in the lives of students who need it most. They will uphold the highest standards of professionalism, integrity, and empathy, ensuring the well-being and academic progress of every child. Furthermore, they will demonstrate a consistent ability to inspire confidence in students and families, fostering a sense of security and belonging within the academy community. Their unwavering dedication to student success will be evident in every interaction, contributing significantly to a positive and nurturing school culture.

Safeguarding of Students and Duty of Care

All staff, regardless of role, level of seniority and location, have a responsibility to ensure the highest levels of safeguarding and promoting the welfare of our pupils, and we expect all our staff and volunteers to share this commitment. We must collectively create an environment where children feel safe to learn, play, and grow. Children should feel comfortable in their surroundings and know that they can approach any responsible adult with any problems or concerns.

All staff must be able to identify any children who are at risk of harm, and know the characteristics of abuse or neglect. If you suspect or confirm harm then it's essential you know what actions to take.

Annual safeguarding training is offered to all staff at Leigh Academies Trust, and it is the staff member's responsibility to be aware of the most up to date guidance documented in the Keeping Children Safe in Education document (Department of Education).

Notes

The job description allocates duties and responsibilities but does not direct the particular amount of time to be spent on carrying them out and no part of it may be so construed. This job description is not necessarily a comprehensive definition of the post. It will be reviewed at least once a year and may be subject to modification or amendment at any time after consultation with the holder of the post.

The duties may be varied to meet the changing demands of the academy/business unit at the reasonable discretion of the Principal/Director. This job description does not form part of the contract of employment. It describes the way the post-holder is expected and required to perform and complete the particular duties as set out in the foregoing.